

Office of Assessment
Putting the Pieces Together

ADVOCATES FOR SCHOLARLY TEACHING

Monday, Sept. 15, 2014

2 p.m. – 3 p.m.

Small Conference Room – Milton Hall #185

Attendees: S. Bartley, J. Bosland, H. Chun, M. Downes, M. Gurrola, L. Grant, M. Marin, T. Leon, C. Ricketts, S. Stochaj, S. Stovall

Not present: T. C. Dorn, J. Kroger, J. Noonan, M. Prentice, L. Reyes, S. Rich, D. Spencer

S. Stovall shared the plans for an Assessment Conference Day that will occur on Friday, March 13 or Friday, April 10.

Review of Committee Purpose – Discussed of the purpose of the committee moving forward and came to the decision to focus on peer review network as a committee. Action Items - Chair will facilitate a FB group to start some collaboration related to AST. All members agreed they to participate. M. Downes will send out email requesting usernames for addition to the group.

Determine Focus for 2014-2015 –

The assessment retreat would be a good opportunity to share exemplary teaching assessment examples.

As related to the peer review the plan is to inquire as to whether the Teaching Academy is willing to assist with scheduling. The ideal time to begin would be early spring, with preliminary pairing in the fall.

Laura Madson to present at the Teaching Academy on September 18 at the Teaching Academy on Scholarly Teaching.

The committee will work on putting together a series of events related to the Baccalaureate Experience.

Action Items:

Create a Facebook group for collaboration – M. Downes

Quarter-page ad advertising the peer network – Committee