

Advocates for Scholarly Teaching (AST)

Thursday, January 19, 2017

Zuhl Library conference room #225

Record of meeting

Attendees: M. Prentice, S. Daughtrey, E. Arroyos, P. Groves, M. Molloy, T. Cole-Dorn, M. Tapia, L. Grant, D. Smith

To do before next meeting:

1. NMHEAR - Funding available for committee members
2. Committee mission and goals

L. Suskie - assessment event, to include an afternoon with committees (9am-12pm, lunch, 1-4pm)

Contributions appreciated on program assessment.

D. Smith shared and discussed document related to the committee moving forward. Start the committee thinking about how to support program assessment.

D. Smith encouraged committee members to be advocates for assessment in their respective colleges.

Committee needs to seek out ways to ensure Department heads get information on deadlines. Setting intermediate deadlines may increase the number of participants.

Peer Review Network – "Assignment" set up through Canvas (learning management system). Done through the Teaching Academy (possibly change name: Teaching Review and Reflection/Peer facilitation of teaching)

- S. Daughtrey to assist in coming up with new approach
- P. Groves to administer the PRN project, which would occur sometime in February

Teaching With the Stars –Roush award presenters focus of the event

- March 9, 5-7 p.m. (March 30 as a back up)
- Evaluations should be available at the end of the event (include a People's Choice vote, or have star ballots)

(M. Prentice to handle decorations and forwarding letters to presenters, T. Cole-Dorn to handle space accommodations, all committee members to bring tablecloths from their respective colleges, P. Groves to help setup and clean up, S. Daughtrey to get gifts for presenters, including a prize for People's Choice presenter, E. Arroyos to put together the evaluation)

Survey to be focus of next meeting

Third Thursday from 3-4 pm
