

COMMITTEE FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING IN GENERAL EDUCATION (CASL-GE)

Tuesday, March 17th, 2015
3:00pm – 4:00pm
Zuhl Library Conference Room #225

Present: M. Shuster, R. Goss, S. Knapp, S. Stovall, J. Smith, D. Smith, B. Cahill

Also attended: A. Mostafa

Not present: P. Andersen, G. Armfield, J. Bosland, K. Wosick

Meeting 3/17/2015

Record of meeting for February approved.

1. Old Business

- a. Update on implementation of writing assessment, nearing completion Online has had fewer numbers participating. The deadline will be extended and a reminder sent to faculty members. Last session for face-to-face is Thursday.
- b. NMHEAR Conference report (D. Smith, J. Fitzsimmons)
18 participants attended the presentation at NMHEAR.
- c. NMSU First Conference on Assessment report (D. Smith, J. Fitzsimmons)
Eight or ten attended the presentation. Suggestion to include GAs in the process.
Possibly finding them through the Teaching Academy or the Graduate School.
- d. Assessment for 2015-2016: Humanities and Fine Arts / Writing topic (J. Smith)
  - i. "Art in Public Places" draft for pilot
  - ii. Pilot implementation schedule

Approved and will be administered on March 18. Draft rubric to follow and should be complete by the April meeting. Scoring session to be scheduled after and will be at The Game possibly during finals week.

e. Writing assessment scoring session: April 10th, 9 – 12, NMSU Teaching Academy Committee is encouraged to attending. Picking out examples of differing qualities. R. Goss will find examples of differing qualities in responses and finding whether it is possible to sort responses in response categories. Assessment liaisons will attend. 15 registered at this point. Viewing a wide-world instructors to be invited. S. Stovall will send

2. New Business

a. Assessment Retreat - Wednesday, May 13 from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. The committee will have the opportunity to reflect on the Fall 2014/Spring 2015 he committee wants to think about having an agenda for the academic year.

Call for new members is going out this week.

3. Adjourn