

Advocates for Scholarly Teaching
November 18, 2015
Zuhl Library conference room, 225
Record of meeting

Action Items:

Attendees: M. Molloy, E. Arroyos, T. Cole-Dorn, L. Grant, P. Groves, M. Prentice, D. Smith, C. Ricketts

1. NMHEAR Conference Deadline - T. Cole-Dorn will be attending for the committee
2. UOAC member for the Spring 2016 - T. Cole-Dorn to represent AST for UOAC
3. Spring Teaching with the Stars (tentative name) - Thursday, March 10 from 4-6 p.m.

Committee will select 8 stars. One representative of each college.

Stars will be sent a personalized email followed up with a phone call.

December - send out letters to star professors "What can you do in a short time to engage new faculty and show them what works for you?" Select a teaching lesson that demonstrates your best practices for teaching. You have been chosen to be considered for this opportunity? Send to one award-winning professor per college.

January - February - posters and promotion

Names of star participants were submitted for the College of Business, College of Education, Library, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Agriculture, Consumer and Environmental Sciences, College of Engineering, College of Health and Social Services

Event ideas:

Committee members to sit at each table to be a scribe.

Have stars indicate what tools they will need in order to effectively present.

Disco ball as decoration

